

THE SPEND-THE-NIGHT PARTY

Carol wanted to have a spend-the-night party. It was the middle [it/ do/ of] the summer and Carol was bored. [Has/ She/ Out] had not seen her friends since [red/ the/ sad] end of school. She wanted a [chance/ flying/ great] to see her friends again and [said/ read/ have] some fun at the same time. Carol's [can/ hat/ mom] said that it was fine if Carol [air/ had/ fat] a spend-the-night party. Carol [though/ called/ whether] up her friends Jane, Ann, and Sue. [She/ Had/ All] three girls said that they would [gone/ head/ love] to come to a spend-the-night party.

[On/ At/ Up] Saturday Carol got ready [the/ and/ for] her party. She helped her mother [great/ clean/ plant] the house. Cleaning the house was [and/ not/ see] Carol's favorite thing to do. However, [she/ and/ wish] was willing to help clean because [her/ met/ sap] friends were coming over. Carol went [be/ to/ it] the grocery store with her mother. Carol [set/ and/ red] her mother bought coke and cookies [seem/ map/ and] chips. Carol felt sure that her friends [boast/ ring/ would] enjoy the food she bought. Carol [heat/ even/ open] went to the record store and [bought/ sheep/ could] a "Madonna" tape for all of [the/ and/ sat] girls to dance to.

By Saturday evening, Carol [sit/ was/ hat] ready for the three girls to [arrive/ threat/ bread] for the party. She waited and [sheet/ waited/ just] but none of her friends arrived. Carol [really/ healer/ called] Jane to see why

Jane had [sat/ red/ not] come to her party. Jane said [that/ vase/ head] she was sorry but she was [sick/ time/ peel] and just did not think to [pill/ call/ seem] Carol. Next, Carol called Ann to [flip/ see/ cap] why Ann had not come to [her/ hit/ and] party. Ann said that she was [pound/ treat/ sorry] but her great aunt from Georgia [paw/ ear/ was] visiting and Ann had forgotten to [pin/ tell/ feet] Carol. Last, Carol called Sue to [see/ flip/ far] why Sue did not come to [get/ fat/ her] party. Sue said that her family [tar/ was/ if] leaving on a vacation the next [sun/ rat/ day] and she could not come over. Sue [tear/ upon/ said] that she was sorry that she [had/ bet/ lap] not called Carol to let her [year/ know/ that].

Carol was very hurt. None of [ate/ bad/ her] friends could come to her party. [Pines/ Worse/ Dishes] yet, none of her friends had bothered [in/ at/ to] call her. Carol felt that her friends [cat/ nap/ had] been very rude. Just then, Carol's [dad/ bin/ mat] walked in the door. Carol told [him/ see/ yet] all about planning for her party. [Wit/ Tap/ She] told him about Jane and Ann [got/ and/ wet] Sue not being able to come [to/ or/ we] her party. She told him she [seal/ yell/ felt] hurt because none of her friends [had/ bed/ lap] bothered to call. Carol's dad gave [fat/ her/ wet] a big hug. "We'll have a [leads/ both/ party], just the two of us," Dad [said/ step/ bead]. Carol and her dad ate all [be/ of/ do] the cookies and chips. They drank [all/ get/ bit] of the coke. They danced to [ate/ jet/ the] "Madonna" tape. Carol felt much better. "[Seem/ What/ Said] a nice dad I have," Carol thought.
